TERMS OF SERVICE FOR AUTHORS

By submitting your article(s) to the Medicine Talk Contributing Authors Article Database, you;

1. You declare that you are a Naturopathic Doctor who graduated from an accredited Naturopathic Medical College; are a Medical Doctor with a license to practice medicine; are a qualified health care expert with credentials from a respective professional association. All authors will need to be verified by the Medicine Talk staff before articles will be considered for publication.
2. You declare that you are the sole owner/author of the article, and that you own 100% of all copyrights pertaining to it.
3. You declare the content of the article is based on research and that all outside sources have been properly cited using Chicago Manual of Style author/date format.
4. Your submission gives Medicine Talk, LLC unconditional permission to publish your article on the Web site and, if featured, it may be distributed through RSS feeds or through our email alerts to members of the MedicineTalk.org community.
5. Your submission gives Medicine Talk, LLC unconditional rights to reprint your article on associated Web sites, newsletters and print publications.
6. Your submission gives unconditional permission for your articles to be reprinted (without alteration) in other ezines, Web sites and print publications from publishers not associated with Medicine Talk LLC. We ask publisher(s) to follow our reprint rules and our Publishers Terms of Service; however, you acknowledge that the lawful enforcement of your copyright is your sole responsibility. If someone violates your copyright, it will be solely up to you to take legal action against them.
7. Submitting an article does not guarantee publication on the Medicine Talk, LLC Web site. It is sole decision of the Medicine Talk staff as to whether your article is published and for how long. Quality of content, writing ability, and adherence to Editorial Standards influence whether an article is published. You can contact Medicine Talk staff for editorial comments on your articles.

8. You acknowledge that we do not pay for submissions to our directory and we do not require publishers to pay you to reprint your article. The primary reason for submitting your article to our directory is for the chance to publish holistic health articles to members of the MedicineTalk.org community, to be reprinted by ezine publishers or Web masters and to be distributed to their respective audiences. We also allow and encourage Naturopathic Doctors to include contact information to their individual healthcare practices to increase awareness about Naturopathic Medicine.
9. You acknowledge that if your article does not conform to the Medicine Talk Editorial Guidelines, our editors may edit your article so that it does conform. Please read our editorial guidelines before submitting your articles to save time and speed the article approval process.
10. You declare that you will not include links within any articles with direct affiliate links in them or to sell products in which you gain a financial reward. It is ok, however, to include links to your Web site, online profile or social networking page.
11. You understand that you retain the copyright to your articles. You may submit them for publication with other entities as long as that entity is aware that Medicine Talk, LLC also has permission for publication. All publishers that reprint your article from MedicineTalk.org are required to abide by our Publisher Terms of Service.
12. MedicineTalk.org reserves the right to modify any and all terms of service at any time without prior notice.
